Blegen Recital

Judith Blegen, Metropolitan Opera soprano who appeared earlier this season in the Met's new production of Les Troyens, will make her recital debut Jan. 12 at Hunter College Assembly Hall as part of the college's Saturday Evening Series. Tickets are scaled from $4 to $7.50 and are available at the box office or through Ticktron.

Blanche Dee has been signed for a major role in "Felix," a new play opening Jan. 13 at the Cherry Lane.

Hurts Like The Dickens

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 25 (UPI) — Only Mr. Scrooge would give a ticket the day before Christmas" read the message a Christmas shopper left on the windshield of his parked car yesterday.

He was right.

The motorist returned to find a $2 ticket and this message: "Yes, Mr. Santa, there is a Scrooge."

"TAUT POLICE DRAMA. A doozey of a chase that ends with the top of a car sheared off under a trailer. I RECOMMEND THE FILM."
—Ann Guarino, Daily News

"A LOT OF VERY HOT ACTION. A car chase reminiscent of 'Bullitt' and 'The French Connection'. Director-producer Phil D'Antoni has a thing for exciting car chases. This time, if not surpassing, at least he has equalled himself."
—Archer Winsten, New York Post

"PURE EXCITEMENT."

"'THE SEVEN-UPS' IS GOOD ACTION ENTERTAINMENT . . . SHARP, SKILLFUL AND SUSPENSEFUL. The highlight is a chase scene right through the streets of New York City, running well over 10 minutes, making it the longest pursuit production so far, if not the most thrilling."
—David Sheehan, CBS-TV
